We wish to dedicate the 2005 Optimist to our parents, guardians and towards graduation. You have constantly provided encouragement, love blessed to have your faith in our future as we've pushed ourselves jungles of our society. With your help we have marched and forged ones, we thank you as we prepare to face the many challenges of a presence in our lives. Once again, thank you for your guidance as we you proud.

friends who have nurtured and guided us on our often rocky path and compassion that has kept us focused on our goals. We have been along the hazardous and often unforgiving avenues of the concrete onward and upward despite blows to the body and mind. Dear loved progressively "sick" world. We are better people because of your have grown from childhood to young adulthood. We hope to make

To the Class of 2005: When I look at you, I see me, a product of Newark Public Schools and most of all a graduate of Malcolm X Shabazz High School. The road ahead for you will be similar to that of a roller coaster. It will have many unpredictable twists and turns but I know that you will have a smooth landing. If the ride seems too long, close your eyes, hold on tight and always remember the words, "I can" as you continue your education and find your place in society. I wish you well.

Congratulations to the Class of 2005!

● TIME TO look BACK

And the Story Begins...

We, the graduating class of 2005, beckon you to reminisce with us as we reflect upon our senior year at Malcolm X Shabazz High School. Our journey towards graduation has been a long and winding one filled with accomplishments as well as setbacks, happiness as well as sadness, hope as well as despair. During our first week of high school we witnessed the destruction of the World Trade Center Twin Towers from our classroom windows. Nevertheless, we have finished our race and have triumphed. To show our gratitude to all those has helped us toward the finish line we thank you.

We present with great pride, the legacy of the Class of 2005.

our field of dreams

In order to be the best, athletes found that with a little more practice they could accomplish their goals and enjoy the thrill of victory more often. Many players were surprised to find that the fruits of victory was a year long commitment to training. Whether it was weightlifting during the spring and summer to practicing in the heat, rain or snow, the show had to go on. Coach McCombs and his staff honed their players skills and motivated the team to produce. The Bulldogs had many heroes but the main leaders were Richardson Tirado, Terrence Williams, Eric Baptist and Ryan Little.

Volleyball is an extremely challenging sport. With each passing year, the team recruits more young and promising athletes who are eager to learn. As the membership grows so too are the expectations and the level of competition. Shabazz's team has become better in their level of play despite a losing record. The players have overcome their hardest challenge: themselves. It was often difficult to pull together and function as a team. However, as time passed the players learned to incorporate teamwork into their game and demonstrate that they were all capable of becoming volleyball players. Overcoming many setbacks, the team believes it will use this experience to improve in the future.

"It takes a great deal of time and hard work to create a quality cheering squad" states Ms. Williamson, this year's advisor.

The role of cheerleaders is very involved and important to the athletic program at Shabazz. At every sporting event they get the crowd involved and pump the teams to greater glory. During halftime they are the main entertainment along with the band. Yes, all of this requires practice and more practice and at the same time keeping it fun.

reach, release and roll bowling

Another difficult season has been completed on the lanes. While the results have not been what was hoped for there is a light at the end of the tunnel. The Shabazz bowlers were young, and inexperienced and at times unwilling to learn. For a long time too many of them thought all that was required was showing up and throwing the ball! However, as time passed and reality hit, the lesson was understood. Bowlers must think. Questions were asked. "Do I move left or right?" "How many steps do I take?" "Where do I release the ball?" Not long after scores improved and we are looking forward to next year.

"Go Bulldogs" or "Get Down" are the chants from the crowd as the game is played in parks on Watchung Conference fields. Practice and more practice gets the team ready to go. Each member tries to improve their individual skills. Yet as time goes on it becomes evident that teamwork is what wins games. Enough said so "let's just play ball!"

The 2003-04 season was very trying for Coach Grimsley who returned after a year layoff. Rebuilding was slow and often painful but there were glimmers of hope. The young team had many ups and downs. The 2003-04 season saw the Bulldogs finish with a 7-13 record. The 2004-05 season started very slow and poised many questions. One of which was, "could a team win with two sophomores in the backcourt.? The answer was yes! Da'Shon Barino and Alray Blackman produced sparkling if unsteady results. Shabazz finished with a 24-7 record and a Group 3 Championship. The squad was guided by the steady leadership of seniors Charles Smith and Saladine Collins, Alton Reynolds and Charles Willis. Next year looks good with the return of high flying junior Horace McGloster.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

You, the Class of 2005, have faced many difficult challenges. However, you persevered and overcame those challenges. As you chart your career path, remember there will be some bumps along the way. Remain focused, determined and true to yourselves.

It has been my pleasure to serve as your Principal, for I have watched you mature into wonderful adults. Wherever life's journey leads you, remember to always voice your dreams and capture your visions of a better tomorrow.

I am confident that you will go proudly into this world with your heads held high, and your eyes wide open. continue to strive for success. Continue to denounce failure and continue to make us ALL proud.

Student Life

For four years you grow.
For four years you know.
For four years you live.
For four years you learn.
You had fun in pep rallies, parties and games.
Four years flew by so fast, isn't it a shame?
You went through trials and tribulations.
From HSPA to early morning classes of SRA.
To normal schoolwork that we do everyday.
From Ms. Dinkins chasing students down the hall.
To that one player who needs a 2.5 to play basketball.
You conquer everything you are facing.
So hats off to the Class of 2005.
The world is yours for the taking!

extraordinary

lights, cameras, action

Afer many weeks of long and extremely tiring practice sessions it was showtime for Shabazz Fashion Club under the advisorship of Mr. Robert Austin. The stage was set, the designers were ready and the lights were beaming. It was time to strut their stuff. The music blasted and the crowd anxiously awaited the models. Cameras began to click and their blinding flashes combined with a loud roar of the overflowing audience produced the first models. The skits ranged from beachwear, casual, eveining attire and the just plain raw and outrageous. The evening was a wonderful experience for all in attendance. Kudos to all involved!

Tayo starts the flash bulbs going as she walks on stage.

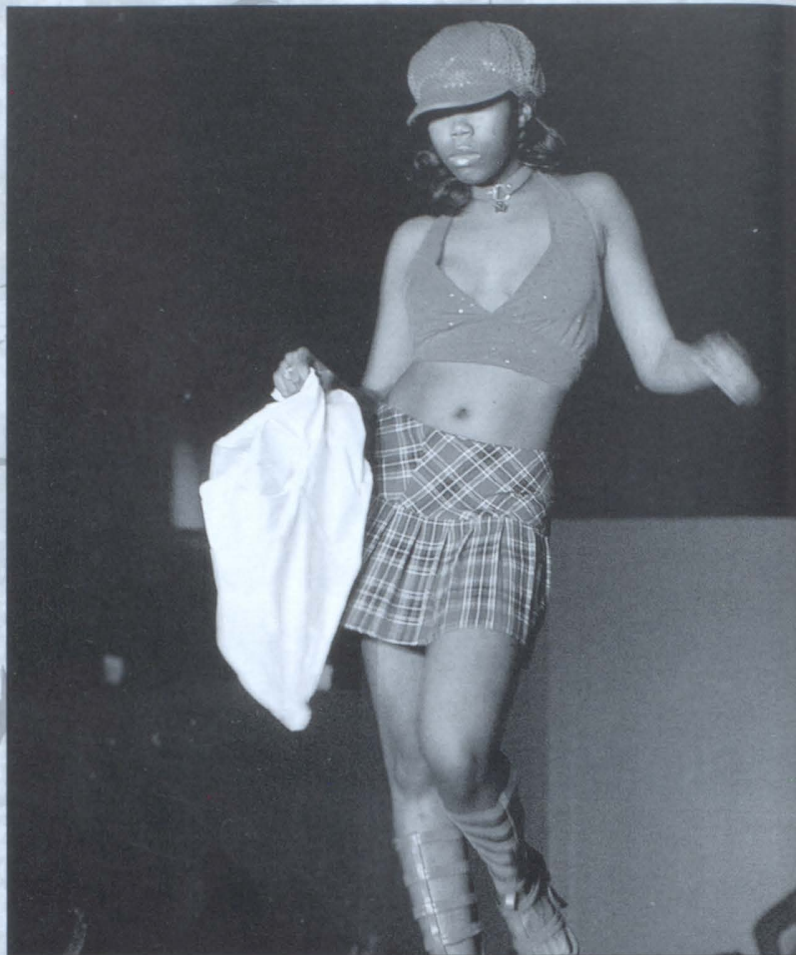

Shakima gets the people on their feet. Do your thing, girl!

LaTasha gives the crowd a dose of quality and beauty.

Kariymah glides down the runway looking like a star.

Ashley has that look in her eyes. Pretty in lace.

Tyjohnna shows the crowd that she has all the moves.

Brittany reaches out success.

Kiddie & Pajama Day

Once a year the students at the Dog House don their kiddiewear and P.J.'s to celebrate their childhood. Those who showed school spirit enjoyed themselves and gave the staff something to smile about. Now take a look at our outfits.

Ashley holds on to Kermit. Don't hurt him.

Social Studies

The major aim of the Social Studies Department is to educate our students to participate in our democracy and make whatever changes modern conditions demand that are consistent with the basic principals and values our society. "Democracy is not a spectator sport," sums up the major objective of the Social Studies Department. A wide variety of courses that meet the needs and abilities of the students at Malcolm X Shabazz are offered.

Clarissa and Orlen study information for Mr. Farrahkan's mid-term.

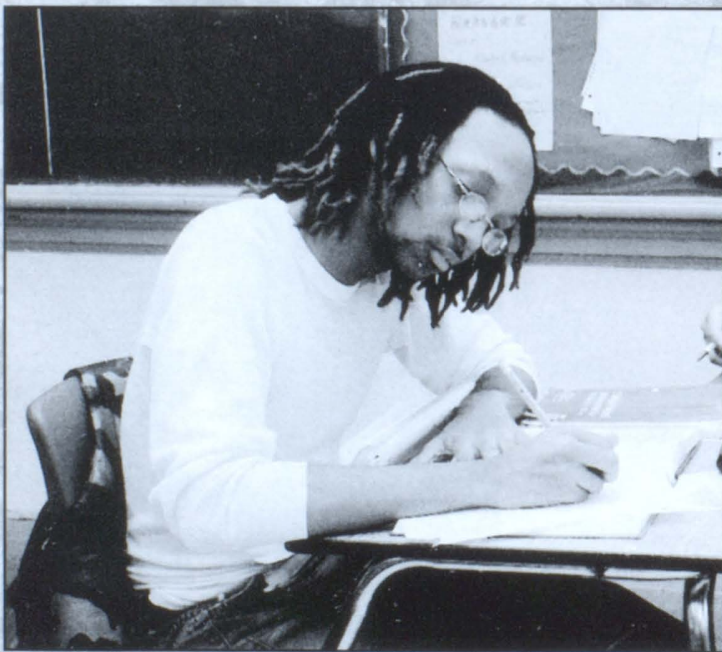

Richard and Mr. Newson locate the area where the Tsusumi occurred.

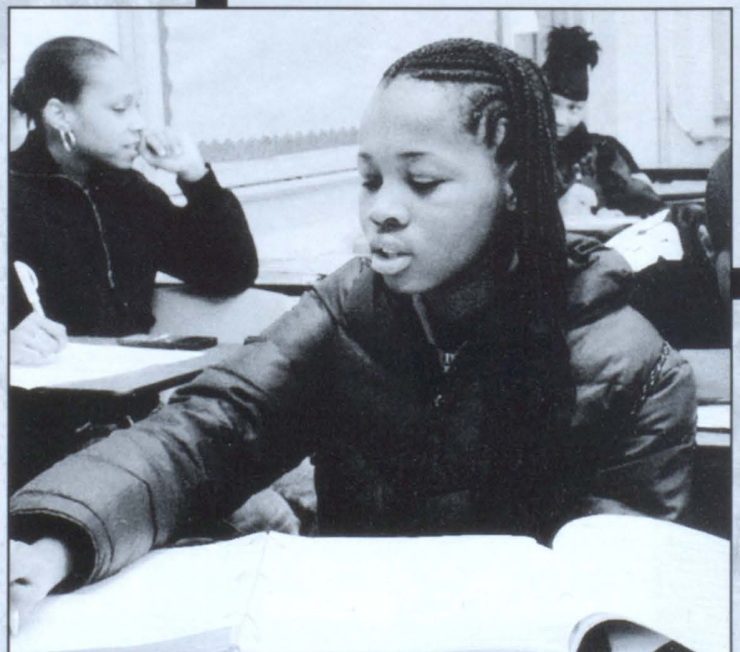

Language Arts

The English Department of Malcolm X Shabazz High School serves a clientele of extraordinarily varied levels of preparation. At each level, the English program builds on and incorporates the program from previous years.

The department is committed to the growth and development of the students in their quest to write well and with imagination, to use language correctly in everyday speech, and to read with understanding and appreciation.

JROTC

Major Tauron Sutton
looks ready to command.

The Junior Reserve Officer Training Program (JROTC) prepares high school cadets for responsible leadership roles while making them aware of their rights, responsibilities and privileges as American citizens. The program is a stimulus for promoting graduation from high school and provides instruction and rewarding opportunities which benefit the cadet, community and nation.

Mathematics

The goal of the Mathematics Department is to provide an opportunity for all students to become mathematically literate so they may be successful in an ever increasingly technological society. Students begin their studies with either a general mathematics course or algebra. All students must eventually complete at least one year of algebra, and must also pass the New Jersey HighSchool Proficiency Assessment.

Carla works her magic on the calculator.

Mr. Capparelli gets the attention of Sade and Will.

Guidance

The Guidance Department at Malcolm X Shabazz High School, in conjunction with the instruction services, provides a broad spectrum of services in the fundamental process of helping the students develop optimally. The Guidance Counselors are members of the school staff with the professional competencies to assist the student in focusing his or her attention to individual interests, needs, and abilities as they relate to home, school and the community.

Students are afforded academic advisement, career counseling, personal and social counseling, as well as opportunities to participate in Pre-College, Upward Bound and Talent Search Programs. Additionally, the guidance counselors aim to assist each student in preparation for the educational opportunities available on the post secondary level.

Ms. Zois explains SAT results to Shantel.

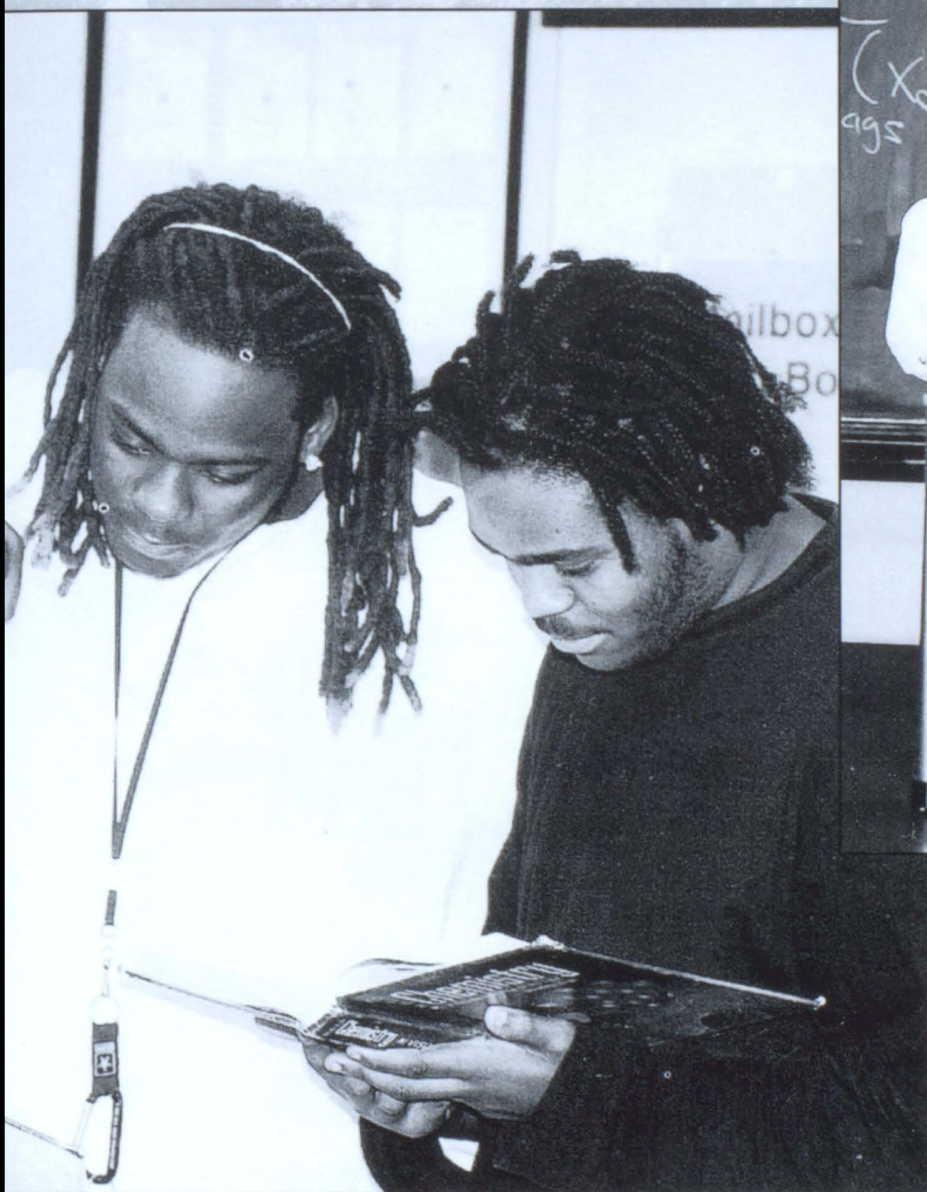

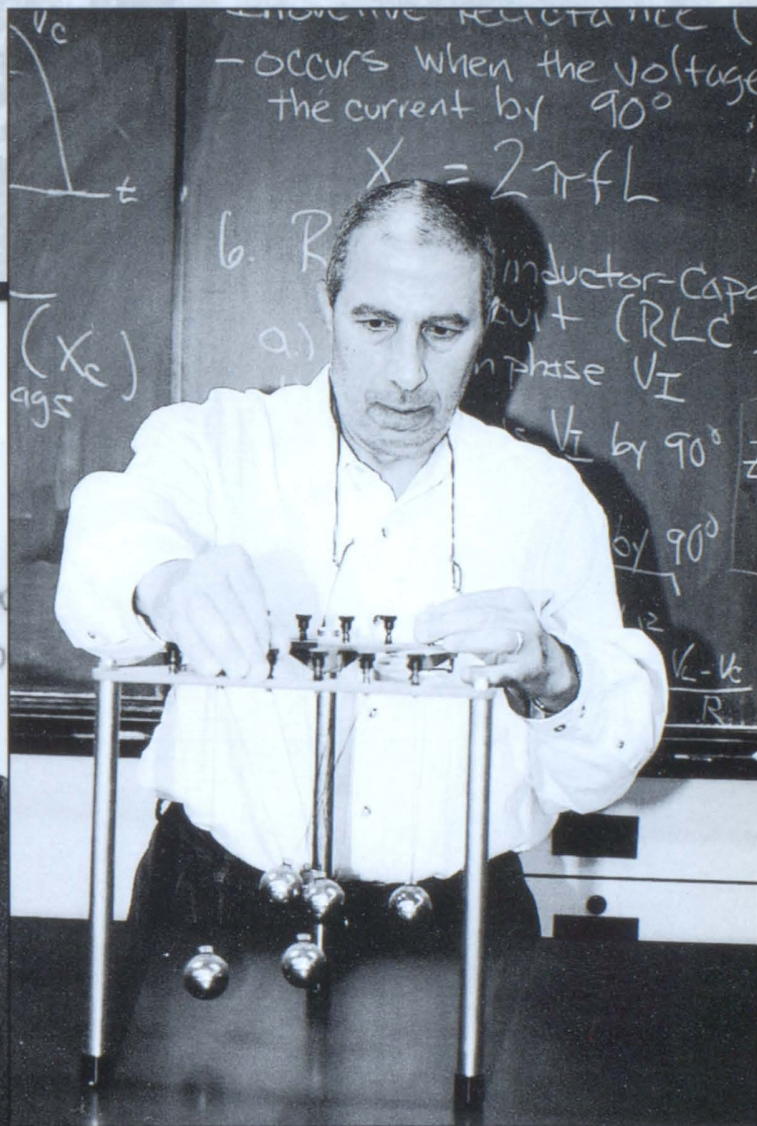

Ms. Blackshear enjoys a light moment with Tayo. She's college bound.

Science

Each day each of us eats, breathes and functions as part of the world around us. The Science program at Shabazz helps students to understand what is happening in our bodies, in the environment around us, and in the world. From the smallest organism, looked at through a microscope, to the whole universe, looked at through a telescope, science covers it all.

Mr. Salama demonstrates the theory of motion.

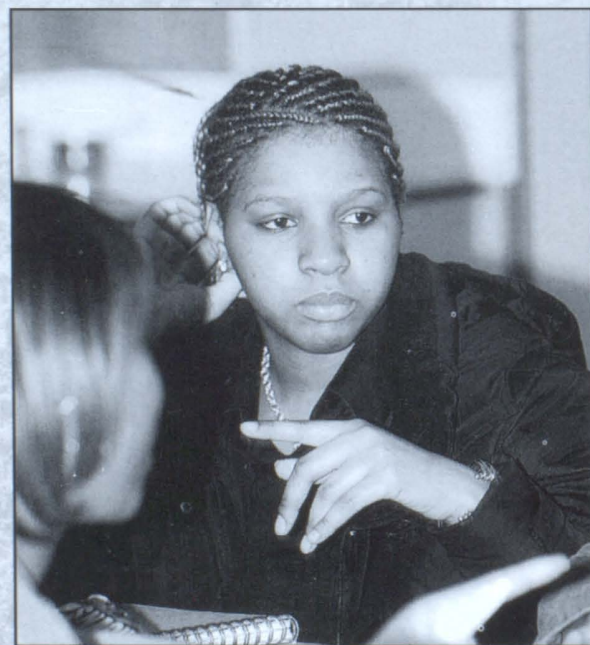

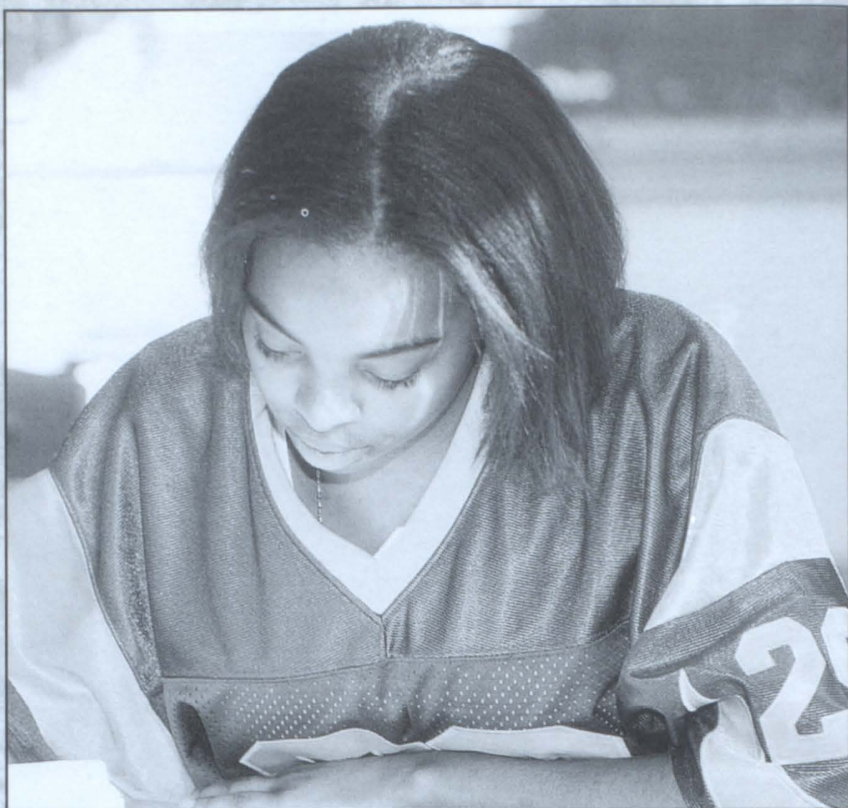

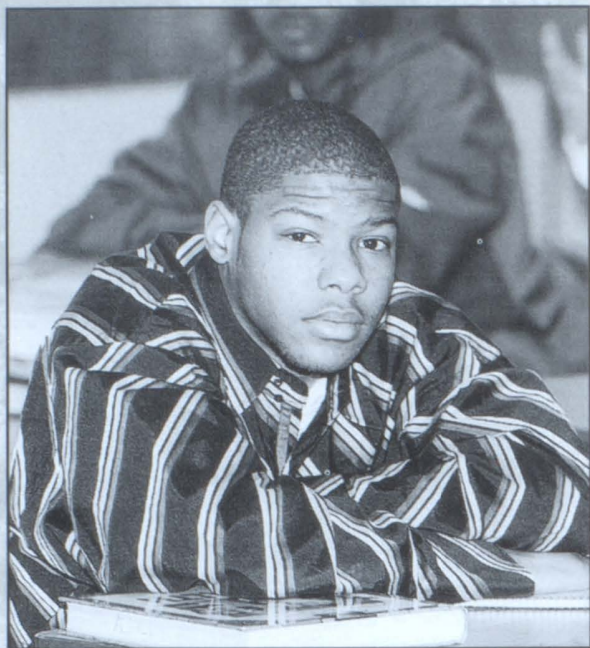

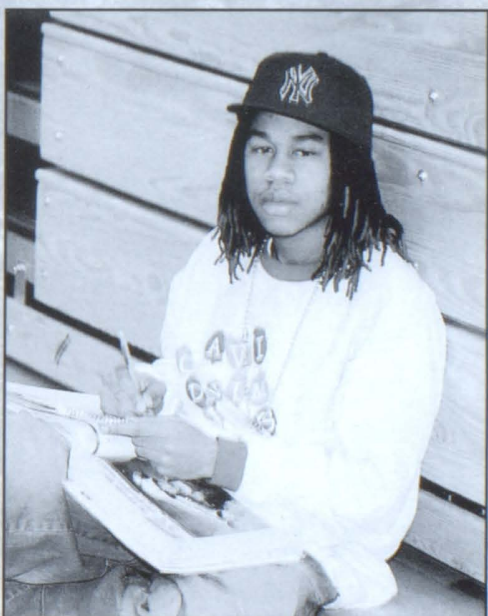

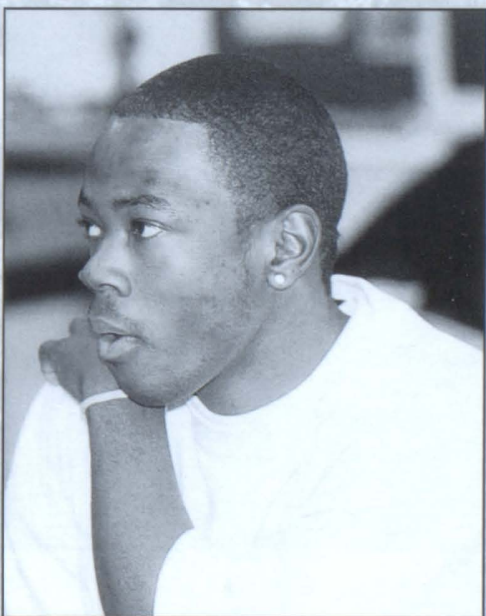

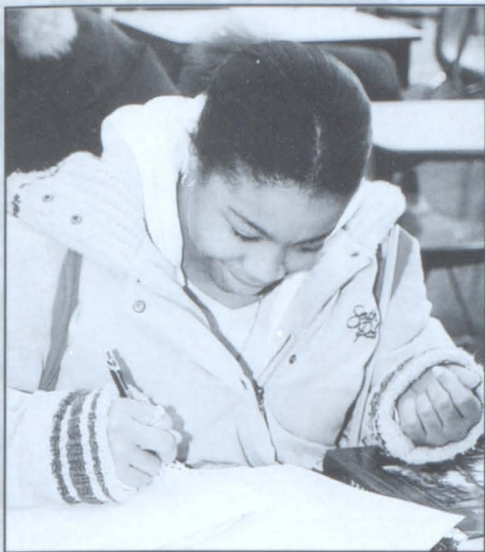

Mr. McGimpsey shares knowledge of chemistry with students.

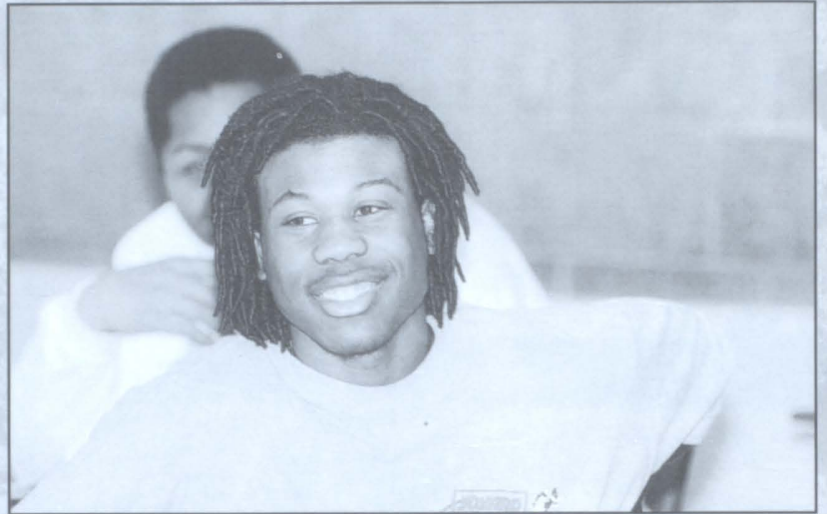

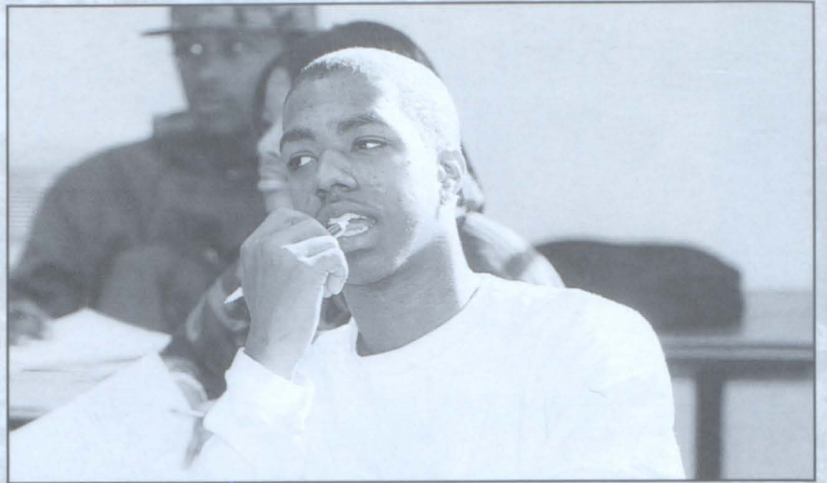

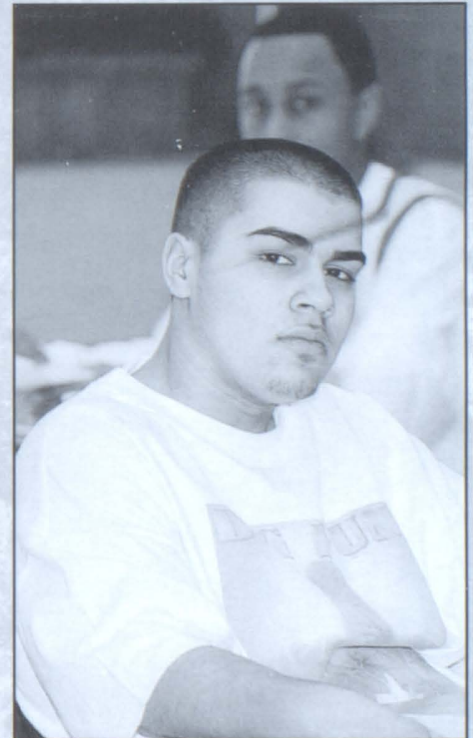

NOT JUST ANOTHER YEAR

Last Will & Testament

We, the Class of 2005 being of sound mind do hereby leave the following:

- > Ms. Dinkins some Air Force's to chase down students in the halls.
- > The front office staff some polite vitamins. Please take one daily.
- > Some of the Math teachers English lessons so we pass.
- > The Class of 2006 better style. Fur boots and button-ups are played out.
- > Ms. Furlow more Project Grad scholars.
- > Mr. Austin a hairline.
- > A retirement to shirts with verbal expressions. "Topsy, Da Bomb and Cutie Pie" they are all wack now.
- > Mr. Farrakhan something to smile about once in awhile. How about a good bowler.
- > The security guards better eyesight so no one can sneak things in.
- > The teachers of MXS some patience to deal with the rowdy Bulldogs.
- > Mr. Williams more new band members to replace those leaving. So proud to be a Bulldog.
- > Peace, Respect and Love to our family, friends, peers & teachers.

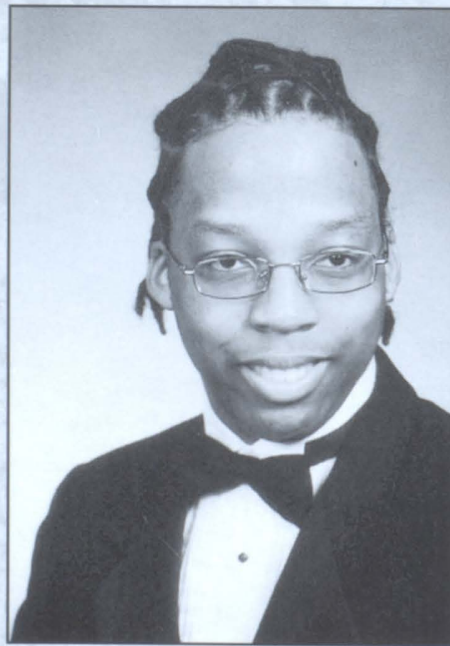

Can You Imagine????

- > Shabazz with heat and air conditioning.
- > Mr. McGimpey with hazel contacts and a real tie.
- > Ms. Dinkins with micro braids.
- > Da Warren being quiet all day.
- > Ramon Finklea attending all his classes.
- > Suki and Disheek being enemies.
- > Synatta going to the Marines.
- > All the seniors paying their class dues.
- > Mr. Austin wearing wranglers.
- > Ms. Zois with straight hair and contacts.
- > Mr. Grimsley not smiling all the time.
- > Entering Shabazz without being hassled by security guards.
- > Ms. Clowney as a swimsuit model.
- > Mr. Farrakhan without wearing a suit or shades.
- > The main office empty.
- > The Senior Class having a class trip.
- > Herman St. Vil talking, Ashley Hodges tall, Tayo not running around.
- > Ms. Monahan getting to Block 1 early.
- > Everybody passing HSPA Math.
- > Class of 2005 with 100% graduation.

If you can't receive justice in a man's house, that man deprives you of justice, he should let you leave. And if he doesn't want you to leave his house, yet can't give you justice in the house he'll end up losing the whole house himself. This is what America is faced with. You and I are living at a time when there's a revolution going on. What is it revolting against?
 The power structure. An international Western power structure.
 An international power structure consisting of American interests,
 French interests, English interests, Belgian interests, European interests. These countries that formerly colonized the dark man formed into a giant international combine.
 A structure, a house that has ruled the World up until now.
 And in recent times there has been a revolution taking place in Asia and in Africa. Now, the man was shook up enough when Africa was in revolt and when Asia was in revolt. All of this revolt was actually taking place on the outside of his house. But now he's faced with something new. Those brothers in Africa and they also have some. Now, up to now there have been Black people in France, divided, Black people in England, divided. Black people in America, divided. What divided us?
 Our lack of pride. Our lack of racial identity. Our lack of racial pride. Our lack of cultural roots. Today it is easier to unite Black people.
 I believe in the brotherhood of man. But despite the fact that I believe in the brotherhood of man
 I have to be a realist and realize that here in America we're in a society that doesn't practice brotherhood. It doesn't practice what it preaches. It preaches brotherhood but it doesn't practice brotherhood. I'm a Muslim. I believe in God, the Supreme Being, the creator of the universe. I believe in one God. And I believe that that God had one religion. That has one religion, always will have one religion.
 And that God taught all of the prophets the same religion, so there is no argument about who was greater or better.
 Moses, Jesus, Muhammed. All of them were prophets who came from one God.
 They had one doctrine, and that doctrine was designed to give clarification of humanity, so that all of humanity would see that it was one and have some kind of brotherhood. I believe in that.

ALMA MATER

It's always fair weather,
When Malcolm X Shabazz gets together.
Though the world may forsake thee,
We will always loyal be.
For it's always fair weather,
When Malcolm X Shabazz gets together.
We'll be loyal forever, to our colors...
Black and Gold.
